

5 Ways

To Get Creative with Roald Dahl

1

Marvellous Masks

What does Mr Twit's beard really look like? Or how about The Grand High Witch's nose?

2

Creative Characters

Augustus Gloop, Violet Beauregarde, Veruca Salt, Mike Teavee; troublesome children who all find themselves in sticky situations at Mr Willy Wonka's factory, but who else needs to be taught a lesson at this crazy chocolate paradise?

3

Tell-tale Teacher

Can your class tell the difference between Miss Honey and Mrs Trunchball? Assume a character and let the kids fire questions at you, can they figure out who you're pretending to be?

4

Freeze Frames

What does Dentist's face look like when he had to stare into the mouth of a crocodile? Try retelling the poem in a series of frozen images.

5

Magical Moves

'Fizzle Wizzle shout hooray!' George's Marvellous Medicine is full of creative words, but can you think of creative actions to match?
